The New Roman Missal

Here are some frequently asked questions about the upcoming changes to the English Mass.

Why is there a need for a new translation of the Mass?

Pope John Paul II issued the upcoming third edition of the Roman Missal during the Jubilee Year in 2000. This new edition included many new texts requiring translation. In addition, there was a desire for more formal and literal translations of the original Latin texts. This new translation will employ the best liturgical language and provide an opportunity to reflect ever more deeply on the Eucharistic celebration.

What exactly is changing?

The structure of the Mass (the order of the elements, the actions of the priest, etc.) remains unchanged. However, the translation of the prayer texts will change to more closely reflect the original Latin texts. It also contains prayers for the celebration of recently canonized saints.

Will the changes be noticeable?

Almost every prayer in the Mass (those spoken by the priest and those spoken by the people) has been retranslated from the Latin to English. Some prayers now recited by memory will need to be relearned, and the familiar language of many prayers recited by the priest will change.

If my parish likes the old translation better, can we continue using that one?

No. No parish may continue to use the current translation after the mandatory use date, which is November 27, 2011, the First Sunday of Advent. Remember, the unfamiliar is always uncomfortable, at least at first. The more familiar the old is, the more challenging it may be to accept and embrace the new. The more you read and pray them, the more familiar and comfortable they will become and the more you will appreciate the theological depth they convey. Finally, you can take your concerns to God in prayer. Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.

What opportunities does the new Missal offer the Church?

Implementing the new Missal will give the Church an opportunity to take a fresh look at its liturgical practice and to renew its celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, which is the "source and summit" of Christian life (Second Vatican Council, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, no. 11).

October 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Lord, before returning to the Father, announced the gift of the Holy Spirit and charged His followers with being His witnesses "to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8).

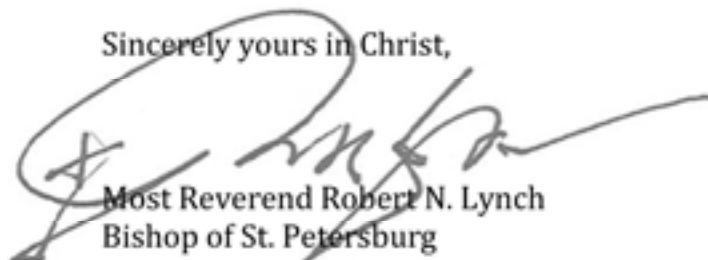

We are familiar with this fundamental duty of all Catholics. Each year, we renew this baptismal call, especially during our Easter celebration. In October, as the entire Church celebrates World Mission Sunday, we have a chance to fulfill this duty in a special way. Through prayer and sacrifice we are able to support those missionaries who bring the "Good News" of Jesus to faraway places. In doing so, we are renewing our own vocation as missionaries. The Church is, after all, mission.

Thankfully, there are many organizations – some Catholic – that extend the treasure and talent of Americans to those parts of the world where people are struggling to get enough to eat or send their children to school. However, the Church's missionary activity begins with the proclamation of faith: "Jesus is Lord!" He is our common hope – a hope that not only clothes and educates, but also saves. On World Mission Sunday, October 23, I invite you to "celebrate the hope that saves" through prayer and participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the World Mission Sunday collection.

Your vital contribution to the Pontifical Mission Societies will support those 1,150 young mission dioceses and communities who await the "Good News" of Jesus as their saving hope. As we pray and respond here in the United States, we join with every parish and chapel around the world to renew ourselves and our Church.

May God bless you and our Diocese.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert N. Lynch
Bishop of St. Petersburg

Octubre del 2011

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Nuestro Señor, antes de regresar al Padre, anunció que la fuerza del Espíritu Santo vendría sobre sus seguidores y les encomendó que fueran sus testigos "hasta los límites de la tierra." (Hechos 1:8).

Todos sabemos que este es un deber fundamental de todos los católicos. Cada año, renovamos nuestras promesas bautismales, sobre todo durante la celebración de la Pascua. Y en octubre, cuando la Iglesia entera celebra el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, tenemos una oportunidad de llevar a cabo este deber de una manera especial. A través de la oración y el sacrificio podemos apoyar a aquellos misioneros que llevan "la Buena Nueva" de Jesús a sitios lejanos. De este modo, renovamos nuestra propia vocación como misioneros. La Iglesia es, después de todo, misionera.

Afortunadamente, hay muchas organizaciones – algunas de ellas católicas – que expanden el tesoro y el talento de los americanos a aquellas partes del mundo donde la gente lucha para tener algo que comer o enviar sus niños a la escuela. Sin embargo, la actividad misionera de la Iglesia comienza con la proclamación de fe: ¡"Jesús es el Señor!" Él es nuestra esperanza – una esperanza que no sólo viste y educa, sino que también nos salva. El 23 de octubre, Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, los invito "a celebrar la esperanza que salva" a través de la oración y la participación en la Eucaristía, y a dar generosamente a la colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones.

Su contribución vital a las Obras Misionales Pontificias apoyará aquellas 1,150 diócesis y comunidades misioneras jóvenes que esperan "la Buena Nueva" de Jesús como su esperanza salvadora. Al orar y responder con nuestra ayuda aquí en los Estados Unidos, nos unimos con cada parroquia y capilla alrededor del mundo para renovar a nuestra Iglesia y a nosotros mismos.

Que Dios los bendiga y a nuestra diócesis.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Reverendísimo Robert N. Lynch
Obispo de St. Petersburg

El Nuevo Misal Romano en inglés

La misa en inglés va a tener unos cambios en algunas de las oraciones porque en el año 2000, el Papa Juan Pablo II incluyó nuevos textos que necesitaban traducirse y además desearon una traducción más literal de los textos en latín. La estructura de la misa no va a cambiar. Pero se han incluido las celebraciones para los nuevos santos canonizados. Vamos a necesitar aprender de nuevo aquellas oraciones que hemos memorizado. Muchas de las oraciones que dicen los sacerdotes han cambiado.

Comenzando el Primer Domingo de Adviento, el 27 de noviembre de 2011, tenemos que empezar a usar las nuevas oraciones.

Implementando el nuevo misal, le da la oportunidad a la Iglesia a darle una nueva mirada a la práctica de la liturgia y a renovar la celebración de la liturgia, que es "fuente y culmen de toda vida Cristiana" (Concilio Vaticano II, Constitución Dogmática sobre la Iglesia, #11).

Estos cambios no aplican a las misas en español.

Los invitamos a participar en un
